it is hard to deny that todayÆs world can seem apathetic toward christians some may look down at their iphones when we mention god motion for the check when we bring up church or casually change the subject when we talk about prayer in a world full of people whose indifference is greater than their desire to know christ how can we dream of growing the church in contagious disciple making david watson and paul watson map out a simple method that has sparked an explosion of homegrown churches in the united states and around the world a companion to cityteam s two previous books miraculous movements and the father glorified contagious disciple making details the method used by cityteam disciple makers this distinctive process focuses on equipping spiritual leaders in communities where churches are planted unlike many evangelism and church growth products that focus on quick results contagious disciple making takes time to cultivate spiritual leadership resulting in lasting disciple making movements through contagious disciple making readers will come to understand that a strong and equipped leader will continue to grow the church long after church planters move on to the next church features include engagement tools for use in the field practical techniques to equip others to make disciples

the growth of christianity in recent decades has been remarkable but has it been growth with depth are our communities of faith our churches creating and nurturing deeply committed followers of jesus this book was born out of the realization that churches throughout the world despite their numerous evangelization and spiritual development activities are struggling to produce true disciples of Jesus. How can we explain why so many of us in our churches are so unlike Jesus in the way we think and act? What can we change in our understanding and practices to facilitate life transformation and spiritual multiplication? And as Christians, what are we called to do in answering these questions? The author proposes an alternative ecclesial and missional paradigm that will enable us to better equip and mobilize believers in the mission that Christ gave to his disciples and gives to us all to make disciples.

The question: How can I disciple someone? How can I motivate them to deepen and broaden their relationship with God and to go on with Him for the long haul?

This critically important book is presented by the author as an attempt to provide the needful for the Lord's call to make disciples. It is a statement of the revelations, doctrines, methods, and principles of discipleship aimed at helping anyone to experience discipleship and thereby lead others to grow in a way to become active workers in making others into disciples of Jesus Christ. It is a book to read and recommend to any servant of God cognizant of the glorious mission that the Lord Jesus Christ has entrusted to His church: therefore go and make disciples of all nations. Finally, the making of disciples is all about the work of transforming a sinner into a repentant sinner, a repentant sinner into a convert, a convert into a young disciple, leading the young disciple to spiritual maturity, and finally helping him to become a disciple maker. This book is highly recommended to the body of Christ.

Thomas Tanner (1705-1710-1750) was born in Rhode Island and moved to Cornwall, Connecticut in 1740. Some descendants moved to Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, and elsewhere.
